Dear Chef Keller,

I wanted to take a moment to thank you once again for making my first trip for pleasure to the DC area better. I had the pleasure of dining at Moon Bay on the second night of my stay in Maryland and enjoyed one of the best halibut dishes ever to cross these lips. The Moon Bay Chopped Salad is hands-down the most flavorful crab concoction I had during my week long stay.

I am always afraid of eating while traveling due to my gluten intolerance, but you and your attentive chefs, cooks, and servers were diligently cognizant of my needs and made my meal even more enjoyable for I felt safe while eating. You did such a great job I had to come back again.

As a matter of fact, I looked back over my week in Washington to find that I had eaten lunch at Moon Bay on 2 separate occasions and had dinner there 4 times. I can not remember ever having 6 meals at the same restaurant in a week. I never ordered the same item twice and I was constantly amazed by how wonderfully each item was prepared.

Thank you and I wish you and Moon Bay great success in the coming years.

Sincerely,

J. Stewart Singleton
